Experiential Learning Program (ELP)

Learners are able to use the Experiential Learning Program (ELP) to waive credits or to test out of classes in which they have experience. The ELP program does incur a small fee for each credit hour awarded and credit is awarded based on the evaluation of the assigned assessor.

Here are the instructions to initiate this process:

- Identify specific courses you would like to earn credit for. (NOTE: Some HEC courses are not eligible for ELP credit.) Review your degree progress report in MySPC and/or contact an academic advisor to clarify your program requirements.
- Complete the ELP application at <https://web.spcollege.edu/survey/3077>
- A designated SPC instructor will interview you to determine if an assessment will be performed.
- Submit any required documentation for the assessment and pay the ELP fee of $25 per credit hour.
- The instructor evaluates the materials and determines if credit will be awarded.
- A notification is sent to you of the assessment outcome.
