Building Arts Advisory Board Meeting

March 20, 2017

12:00PM-1:00PM

Room CR-156 (Clearwater campus)

In-attendance: Lara Sharp, Tom Burkett, Jillian Bandes, Robert Hudson, Susan Eftman, Natavia Middleton, Jonathan Hammond, Joseph Benavides

Absent: Albert Craig, Joseph DiPasqua, Travis Parker

12:00PM Welcome and Introductions

12:10PM State Curriculum Frameworks Review—Robert Hudson is heading up the review of the DRAFT-AS and ARCH-AS frameworks with Jillian Bandes and Tom Burkett. The board agreed that it be recommended to the state that the ARCH-AS (architectural design and construction technology) degree be renamed to drop the architectural design portion of the current name.

12:20PM 3 Year Plan for Building Arts and Architecture

--Sustainability Certificate—Lara Sharp proposed that with some course modifications in this certificate it could be a true sustainability certificate. The board seemed to believe that the previous building construction certificate was more useful.

--Long-term sustainability of the Building Arts Program—Ms. Sharp informed the board that the DRAFT-AS and DRAFT-CT programs will be discontinued starting Spring 2018. The discontinuation of these programs is due to low enrollment and completion. The board was also told that Robert Hudson will probably be retiring in 2-3 years and that a transition plan is being discussed with the Dean for Mr. Hudson's replacement. Ms. Sharp will find out how to get BA classes on the dual enrollment list.
